

Capital Regional District | November 2020

For Rock Walls, Rocky Surfaces, Cracks and Crevices

- Stonecrop (Sedum spathulifolium, lanceolatum, oregonum) – evergreen with yellow flower
- Nodding onion (Allium cernuum) – evergreen with nodding pink/mauve flower
- Pussytoes (Antennaria microphylla, A. neglecta) – flowers are like pussy toes
- Alumroot (Heuchera micrantha) – evergreen, very hardy
- Licorice fern (Polypodium glycyrrhiza) – dies back in summer, winter green, likes shade
- Sword fern (Polystichum munitum) – evergreen, likes shade
- Camas (Camassia quamash, C. leichtlinii) – purple flower, bulb
- Satin flower (Sisyrinchium douglasii) – dainty purple early spring flower
- Blue-eyed mary (Collinsia grandiflora) – annual
- Sea blush (Plectritis congesta) – annual, pink flowers spread easily
- Spring gold (Lomatium utriculatum) – yellow flower
- Shooting star (Dodecatheon hendersonii) – magenta comet-like flower
- Hooker's onion (Allium acuminatum) – purple flowers bloom later in spring
- Woolly sunflower (Eriophyllum lanatum) – bright yellow daisy-like flower
- Sea thrift (Armeria maritima) – mounded plant with white/pink flowers
- Kinnikinick (Artostaphylos uva-ursi) – evergreen ground cover
- Penstemon (Penstemon serrulatus, P. fruticosus) – tubular purple/mauve flowers
- Menzie's larkspur (Delphinium menziesii) – blue flower
- Saxifrage (Saxifraga integrifolia) – clusters of small white flowers.
- Harebell (Campanula rotundifolia) – charming blue bell-shaped flower
- Fool's onion (Brodiaea hyacinthina) – white flower, long stem
- Harvest brodiaea (Brodiaea coronaria) – tiny purple flowers bloom in summer
- Monkey flower (Mimulus alsinoides, M. guttatus) – tiny yellow flowers, moist crevices
- Goldenback fern (Pityrogramma triangularis) – shaded moist crevices
- Parsley fern (Cryptogramma crissa)